Garfield Community Center Spotlight

After School Cool Program

Garfield Community Center offers the "After School Cool" program for students that attend Quincy Elementary school! This is a fun program that incorporates recreational activities, tutoring help and fun and games! The program cost is $26 per month. Garfield Community Center was fortunate to receive a grant from the St. Francis Mission Grant Fund to help off-set the cost that participants incur by offering scholarships for participants!

The "Garfield After School Cool" program is staffed by community center employees and volunteers from Washburn University. We thank our volunteers for their invaluable assistance.
